

Brooke C. Bonner

bbonner@zagmail.gonzaga.edu | 425.891.9998 | brookebonner.weebly.com | MSC#2097

Education

Gonzaga University, Spokane, WA

Bachelor of Arts in Fine Arts

Graduation Date: May 2016

GPA 3.5

Gonzaga University Faculty Led Program, London, ENG (Summer 2014)

Certification

Completion Date: Washington State Residency Certificate

Endorsements: Elementary Education, Reading, ELL

Work Experience

Gonzaga University Housing & Residence Life, Spokane, WA

Aug. 2014 – May 2016

Resident Assistant

- Facilitated a peaceful living environment for 46 residents: providing academic, emotional, & social support.
- Collaborated & communicated with 13 team members to enforce policy, mediate conflict, & ensure building safety.

Volunteer/Community Service

Science in Action, West View Elementary School, Spokane, WA

Sept. 2015 – May. 2016

Mentor & Science Educator

- Created an encouraging learning environment by teaching science in constructivist ways which valued self-discovery.
- Utilized creative teaching strategies to fully engage students in the learning process.

SMILE & Zag Study Buddies, Spokane, WA

Sept. 2013 – May 2015

Mentor

Leadership Experience

Gonzaga University Athletics, Spokane, WA

Aug. 2012 – May 2016

Cheerleader

- Embodied being a strong role model
- Used demeanor, actions, and speech to represent positive and honest morals which set a good example for children and fans.
- Perfected time management skills due to rigorous practice & game schedule.

Awards & Honors

Alexander Belleba Brotherhood Award (Alpha Kappa Psi)

Gonzaga University President's List & Dean's List

The true purpose of teaching is to create an encouraging educational experience for children. At the most fundamental level, teaching needs to embrace the development of a well-rounded individual—shaping students to love learning.